The members of the Honolulu Fire Companies turned out on Thursday for their annual parade and festival. The procession was formed on the ground in front of Mechanic Engine House No. 2 in the following order: Pioneers, two from each company with their axes; the Royal Hawaiian Band; Chief Engineer Geo. A. Lucas ; First Assistant Engineer Jno. Nott; Second Assistant Engineer James Dodd; Fire Marshal McGuire; No. 1 Engine Company. B. Wilson, Foreman, with their Steam Fire Engine, mustering 50 in all. Mechanic Engine Company No. 2, C. Lucas foreman, 42 men with hand Engine, followed by a troop of 18 youthful received as fines from those who have violated the volunteers; No. 4, Hawaiian Engine Company, J. W. Boyd foreman, 46 in all with hand Engine : Pacific Hose Company, No. 4, J. Bryson foreman, 12 in all, with hose reel, etc.; Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, G. Haughtailing foreman, 🕍 in all, with apparatus; China Company, No. 5, Steam Fire Engine. The whole force turned out in first class style, rendering the procession a very pleasing spectacle. After marching through the principal streets of the town, taking their usual route, the Companies came to a halt in front of the new Hall of No. 1 Company in King street. Here the new building was toasted by the whole Department, and in the romantic play of the "Two Orphans," was | three cheers for the Company and its officers were given.
